【1】 次の英文を読んで問いに答えなさい。

A long, long time ago, a mother kangaroo was out with her *joey. But her joey had jumped off to play somewhere. The mother kangaroo started looking everywhere for her joey. “Joey! Joey! Where are you?” called the mother kangaroo. She looked under the plants and in the trees, but she couldn’t find him anywhere. “Here I am!” came a voice from ( ① ) her. It *scared her and she jumped high in the air. “You scared me!” said the mother kangaroo. “I’m sorry,” said the joey, “but I really wanted to jump around and play.”

Just then, a *wombat came walking out of the plants. He was slow and looked very old. She heard him say, “All of them are *useless! Useless and *worthless!”

“What’s wrong wombat?” asked the mother kangaroo. “What?” said the wombat a bit surprised. “Who said that?” “I did!” said the kangaroo. “A mother kangaroo and her joey.” “Oh,” said the wombat. “I’m blind. I can’t see anything and everybody left me!”

The kangaroo had a very kind heart and tried to cheer up the wombat. “It’s not so bad. I’ll be your friend. My joey and I will show you ② ( delicious / all the / where / is / most / grass ) and take you to the cleanest water.” So she let the wombat hold her tail and took him to the tallest, greenest grass. The wombat ate a lot of grass and drank a lot of clean water. The wombat was happy and the mother kangaroo was glad to see him feeling better.

“Not again!” said the mother kangaroo. “What’s wrong?” asked the wombat. “My joey has ③ gone off to play again. ④ It makes me so worried. Wait here and relax, ( ⑤ ) I try to find him.” With that, the mother kangaroo jumped away to try to find her joey. Again she searched in all the plants and finally ⑥ ( found / sleeping / she / under / him ) a tree. The mother kangaroo didn’t want to *disturb her joey, so ⑦ she quietly went back to the wombat.

When she got close to the place she left the wombat, she heard something in the bushes. She looked around and saw a hunter with a *spear getting close to the wombat. She wanted to protect the wombat like her own child, so she *stomped on the ground and jumped up and down. “Wombat run! A hunter is here. Run!” The hunter stopped ⑧ ( follow ) the wombat, now he wanted to catch the kangaroo. The kangaroo jumped away from the tree her joey was sleeping under and ran far away. She found a cave and went inside. She waited ( ⑨ ) the hunter to go past.

She left the cave and quickly went back to her joey. He was still asleep under the tree, so she woke him up and told him they ⑩ must find the wombat. The mother kangaroo and her joey searched for a long time. Finally they found the wombat and at that moment he turned into a god. “I changed into a wombat so I could find the kindest animal of all.” said the god. “And that animal is you, mother kangaroo! So I’m going to give you a special present.” Then, the god took some *bark off a tree and handed it to mother kangaroo and told her to tie it around her waist. When she did, the bark became the *pouch that all kangaroos have today. “Now you have a pouch to keep your joey close and a place for him to sleep. You don’t have to worry anymore.”

The mother kangaroo was very happy. But she was very kind, so she wanted all the other kangaroos to have a pouch like hers. The god was very happy with the mother kangaroo and he gave the pouch to all kangaroos, because of this they all have pouches today.

【3】 James, 弥生, 浩司が休憩時間に廊下で話をしています。これを読んで次の問いに答えなさい。

Yayoi : What's your blood type?

James : Mine is B.

Koji : Oh! I thought yours was B! You do everything at your own pace. And you only do what you want to do.

James : I can't *deny that.

Yayoi : How about you, Koji?

Koji : Mine is AB.

Yayoi : Really? I thought your blood type was O.

James : Why?

Yayoi : Because Koji is gentle and kind to everyone. And he works hard to realize his dream.

Koji : AB types are often said to be moody, they get angry or sad quickly. Am I moody?

Yayoi : Sometimes.

James : Japanese like talking about blood types a lot. In Australia, many people don't know their blood type.

Koji : I didn't know ① that. But it must be a problem when you are in an accident.

James : I have never worried about that. In that case, they will check your blood type at the hospital.

Koji : I see. So blood types aren't important in other countries?

James : I think only Japanese like talking about blood types. For example, books about blood types are popular in Japan. That was very strange to me when I first came to Japan. But now that I have lived in Japan for several months, I've gotten used to it. By the way, Yayoi, your blood type is A, right?

Yayoi : That's right.

James : What are A type people like?

Yayoi : They always keep their rooms and desks clean.

James : You are not like that. ( laughing )

Koji : It's funny! ( laughing )

Yayoi : You are both *mean!

Koji : In Australia, ② ( anything / there / like / is / blood types ) ?

James : Australians like talking about zodiac signs.

Koji : That sounds interesting.

Yayoi : I check my horoscope on TV every morning.

Koji : How was it today?

Yayoi : My sign was in third place.

James : Not bad. What are your zodiac signs?

Yayoi : Pisces.

Koji : Scorpio.

James : Each zodiac sign has different *features. Let's go to a computer room and check.

Yayoi : Good idea.

( In the computer room )

James : Pisces are romantic, and Scorpions are quiet but *patient.

Yayoi : Wow! That's so true! I want to check my brother's zodiac sign, too!

James : When is your brother's birthday?

Yayoi : July 30th.

James : His sign is Leo.

Koji : What kind of features do they have?

James : They always tell the truth, and they like to lead.

Yayoi : That sounds right! What is your sign James?

James : Mine is Capricorn. Capricorns are very careful and *responsible.

Koji : Are you careful? ( laughing )

Yayoi : I didn't know that each sign has a basic personality. I'll tell my friends about that.

Thank you James.

James : You're welcome. Anyway, I don't believe in blood types or zodiac signs. Everyone has their own personality.

Yayoi : That's right. But...

( Ding Dong )

Koji : That's the bell! We have to go to class.

James : See you later.

Yayoi : See you.
