【1】 次の英文を読んで問いに答えなさい。

Many years ago there was an *emperor who loved new clothes very much. He loved them so much that he spent most of his money on new clothes. He had a new coat for every hour of the day, and when emperors usually talked with their advisers, he was always trying on new clothes (①) his dressing room.

Every day many new people came (②) the town to sell and buy things. One day two *con men came to the emperor's town and told everyone that they were *tailors who could make the most beautiful and amazing clothes. The *thread they used was so amazing. Anyone who was not good (③) their job or who was very *stupid could not see it.

When the emperor heard of these tailors he knew that these clothes would be perfect for him. He also thought to himself, "If I wear these clothes I will know which of my staff are bad at their job or stupid!" So he paid the tailors a lot of money and gave them silk and gold thread to *weave for their clothes.

The two con men *pretended to work for many hours at a time. They asked for more silk and gold thread, and put ④ them into their bags. They pretended to weave for days and the emperor could not wait, so he decided to check the work of the con men.

The emperor sent his oldest and smartest adviser to see the men. When ⑤ he arrived he was shocked to see nothing. The two con men said, "The thread is beautiful, isn't it?" "Yes, it is the most beautiful thread I have ever seen, the colors and patterns are so amazing." The con men told him the different colors and patterns of the thread that wasn't there, and the adviser went back to the emperor and told him how amazing it was, because he was afraid (⑥) losing his job. The emperor gave the men more money, silk and gold thread. The con men worked for days and days.

Finally, the two men said, "We have finished ⑦ (weave)." Soon after that, all of the city was talking about the amazing clothes, and the emperor decided to check for himself. He took all his advisers to go to see the con men.

When he entered, he was shocked, "I can't see anything! Am I stupid? Maybe (⑧)" thought the Emperor. One of his advisers said, "It's amazing, isn't it?" "The colors are amazing." Then the emperor said, "Yes. It is the most amazing cloth I have ever seen." Another adviser said, "Everyone ⑨ (have) to see something this beautiful. You should wear it for the great parade tomorrow."

The next day ⑩ (take off / the emperor / to / the con men / asked / his clothes) and helped him put on the clothes they made.

As the emperor walked through the streets everyone talked about how amazing and beautiful his clothing was, but no one could see it. About halfway through the parade a young boy came to the front of the crowd, looked at the emperor and shouted, " (⑪) " The boy's father tried to keep the boy quiet, but soon everyone was saying that the emperor was wearing nothing.

When the emperor heard this, he knew that the people (⑫), but he could not tell anyone, so he continued on the parade prouder and taller than before.
